

Bay Area Workforce – Solutions for Business

Business Solutions include a range of products and services provided by a variety of workforce partner agencies.

INDUSTRY PARTNERSHIPS

Provided by WDB's, in partnership with WEDC, technical colleges, and trade associations, partnerships offer:

- A convening role for services
- Assistance with strategic vision and planning
- Promote the business and industry sector
- Communicate the need for new, specialized and specific training programs for the workplace
- Provide funding for training programs
- Grant writing assistance and support

SPECIALIZED SERVICES

- Pre-employment and incumbent worker assessments
- DVR workplace assessments; Assistive technology
- Human resource services
- Layoff aversion; Rapid response for layoffs/closures;
- Displaced worker information and resources
- Tax credit information and assistance
- Bonding
- Human services for specialized workplace needs

For more information, contact John Lewis at John.Lewis@dwd.wisconsin.gov
(920) 448-6786

RECRUITMENT

- Job order assistance; Job posting to JCW (www.jobcenterofwisconsin.com)
- Connect with community job fairs and career exploration events
- Recruitment events on-site at job centers
- Recruitment events on-site at a business
- Job leads and work-ready applicants
- Resume and applicant screening
- Scheduling applicants; Interview prep.

TRAINING

- Work-based training; On-the-job training; Work Experience; Apprenticeships
- Customized training for business and/or by business sector
- Short term training
- Specialized training
- Incumbent training

LABOR MARKETING INFORMATION

- Industry and occupational projections
- Economic trend data
- Industry specific trends
- Wage data by region/job/business sector