

Kathi Seifert

Kathi Seifert retired as Executive Vice President for the Kimberly-Clark Corporation after 26 years at the company. Most recently, Kathi led the team that develops and manages global plans for branding and product positioning, R&D programs, and capital investment for personal care products. In addition, she oversaw the company's U.S. and Canadian consumer sales forces.

Recently named to Fortune magazine's list of the 50 Most Powerful Women in Business, Kathi also was named to Forbes.com's annual list of "America's Top Businesswomen."

She is a member of the board of directors of Eli Lilly and Company, Appleton Papers Inc., the National Board of the U.S. Fund for UNICEF, ThedaCare Health Care Group, Supervalu, Revlon Consumer Products Corporation and Lexmark, Inc. and the Fox Cities Performing Arts Center.

She has also served as co-chair of The Northeast Wisconsin Regional Economic Development Partnership the group that spearheaded the region's economic collaboration effort more than a year ago. This organization will now be known as New North, Inc.