

Planning for CLIMATE IMPACTS in Northeast WISCONSIN COMMUNITIES

Safeguarding our economy, environment and quality of life.

SAVETHE DATE
09/13/2011

Contact: Patrick Robinson 920.465.2175
robinsop@uwex.edu

NOAA Coastal Services Center
LINKING PEOPLE, INFORMATION, AND TECHNOLOGY

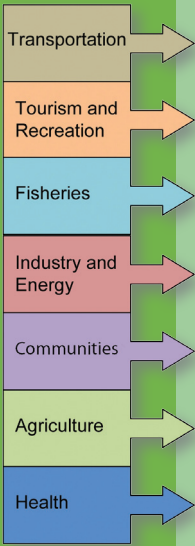

Workshop Sponsors

Wisconsin Collaborating Partners

- Bay-Lake Regional Planning Commission
- Green Bay Metropolitan Sewerage District
- New North Sustainability Committee
- Sustainable Green Bay
- The Nature Conservancy
- University of Wisconsin Sea Grant Institute
- Wisconsin Coastal Management Program
- Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources
- Wisconsin Initiative on Climate Change Impacts
- Ohio DNR Office of Coastal Management
- ODNR Division of Wildlife Old Woman Creek
- National Estuarine Research Reserve
- Ohio Lake Erie Commission
- Ohio Sea Grant College Program

Sectors affected by climate change:

What: A workshop to build local & regional capacity for climate adaptation planning in Northeast Wisconsin.

Who Should Attend: Planners & other professionals addressing land use, public health, stormwater, emergency preparedness & natural resource management issues.

Where: University of Wisconsin – Green Bay

Workshop includes:

- Summary of climate change science and impacts in Northeast Wisconsin.
- Climate adaptation planning processes and strategies.
- Tools, data, and resources for climate adaptation planning.
- Regional examples of climate planning.
- Introduction to assessing climate vulnerability for your community.

Learn more & register:

<http://nerrs.noaa.gov/CTPIndex.aspx?ID=663>

Registration will begin in August and can be accessed through the above link. Additional e-mail notification will be sent once workshop registration becomes live.

Project funding was received via President Obama's Great Lakes Restoration Initiative
Learn more: www.greatlakesrestoration.us

Financial assistance provided under award NA10N054190182 from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce through the Ohio Coastal Management Program, administered by the Department of Natural Resources, Office of Coastal Management.

Photo: Mike Anderson