Lessons Learned in a Pandemic World: The Impact of COVID-19 on Business Owners

Brought to you by UW Oshkosh Center for Customized Research and Services and AEGIS Financial.

UW Oshkosh-Center for Customized Research and Services is following up their monthly Covid-19 Economic Impact surveys with a virtual event titled "Lessons Learned in a Pandemic World: The Impact of COVID-19 on Business Owners".

UWO-CCRS conducted surveys in partnership with WEDC, New North and the eight other regional economic development organizations in Wisconsin. We were able to collect important data right from the beginning of the pandemic and want to share the important lessons we learned over the past year as well as share the opportunities and resources that are available to businesses going forward.

Presenters will include Jeff Sachse an economist and Interim Director of UWO Center for Customized Research and Services, Deputy Secretary and COO Sam Ridders, Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation, Barb LaMue, President and CEO New North, Ann Franz, Executive Director of NEW Manufacturing Alliance, Dan Brosman, Associate Director of Small Business Development Center at UW Oshkosh and Bill Bowman, President and Wealth Manager, AEGIS Financial. The virtual event is to take place on Wednesday, April 7th from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

Space is limited so reserve your FREE virtual seat today!
