

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thursday, March 18, 2021

Contact: Wendy Gehlhoff 715-528-3294

Keyes Peak Uphill Truck Drags

Florence, WI... The 58F sunny day drew a huge outdoor crowd to the 2nd Annual Keyes Peak Uphill Truck Drags on Saturday, March 13th. Over 3,500 people watched as four classes of trucks raced side by side up the intermediate run at Keyes Peak Ski Hill. This was a double elimination tournament with over 100 trucks from Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Indiana and Minnesota. $6,000 of prize money went to the following winners:

STOCK: 1st Randy Patten of Vinton, IA
2nd Robert Clemo of Crystal Falls, MI
3rd Todd Johnson of Vulcan, MI

PRO STOCK: 1st Paul Wegener of Bay City, MI
2nd Brady Murphy of Anita, IA
3rd Brandon Sherman of Millington, MI (in Sure Shot right photo)

SUPER STOCK: 1st Paul Wegener of Bay City, MI
2nd Jeff Bouman of Marquette, MI (in Midnight Run bottom right photo)
3rd Adam Meyers of Austin, MN

MOD: 1st Dylan Kenedy of Nashville, MI
2nd Joe Berke of Rockford, MI (in Dirty Intentions bottom left photo)
3rd Tyler Stevenson of Cedar Springs, MI

Event organizers thank the spectators and racers for their polite and patient behavior all day. Everyone had fun including the 150+ volunteers who are already planning improvements for next year.

This event raised money for three local volunteer organizations: Keyes Peak Ski Hill Committee, Blue Ox Trail Riders and the Florence Volunteer Fire Department. Organizers would like to thank the 20 businesses and individuals who donated prize money. In addition, a big thanks to the 26 businesses, organizations, agencies and 150+ volunteers who made this event a huge success. Follow Florence County on Facebook to see the list of sponsors, prize money donors and more pictures. Photos courtesy of Derrick Biermann Photography. Go to www.ExploreFlorenceCounty.com to watch for the truck mud runs coming in June and August.

