Consolidated Construction Co. Inc. and Maple Creek Construction Join Forces to Expand Services and Increase Geographic Reach

(August 17, 2021) Appleton, Wis. – Consolidated Construction Co., Inc., a full-service design/build contractor based in Appleton, is excited to announce the talented professionals of Maple Creek Construction (MCC) are joining the Consolidated Construction team.

MCC is based in Columbus, Wisconsin, about 30 miles northeast of Madison. They perform general contractor and construction management services, and specialize in hotel, restaurant, multi-family, office, and light commercial projects. MCC has an impressive portfolio of completed jobs, a healthy backlog of upcoming projects, and capacity to take on additional work.

“MCC has built a great reputation in Southern Wisconsin and across the Midwest. Their talents and skill sets will further strengthen the core markets and projects that Consolidated Construction targets,” said John Schneider, President of Consolidated Construction. “It will be a great addition to have local support of our sales efforts and construction expertise in that region.”

The expanded company will operate under the Consolidated Construction Co. Inc. brand.
