FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Applications Now Open for 2022-23 Leadership Fox Cities Class

FOX CITIES, Wis. (May 2, 2022) – Fox Cities professionals are invited to apply for the Fox Cities Chamber of Commerce’s 2022-2023 Leadership Fox Cities class. Since 1991, this Chamber program has shaped the community’s leaders with immersive educational experiences that inspire engagement.

Countless alumni credit their Leadership Fox Cities experience with networking, career, and philanthropic successes that have guided them in leadership and given them new insights into the strengths, opportunities, and challenges that exist within the Fox Cities region – defined by the Chamber as Wisconsin’s Calumet, Outagamie, and northern Winnebago Counties.

The annual class comprises approximately 40 members who are chosen via the application process. Tuition assistance is available, and many employers provide professional development funds. The class gathers monthly, from September through May, for educational sessions focused on specific community topics ranging from human services and arts to government and law enforcement. The classes include prominent guest speakers, hands-on experiences, tours, and opportunities for relationship-building.

Participants are also placed into small groups and are tasked with identifying an issue or program that needs attention in the community. Working collaboratively, the groups plan and execute sustainable community projects that are presented at Leadership Fox Cities Commencement in May.

Applications for the 2022-2023 session are being accepted now through June 27, 2022. Apply online at <https://foxcitieschamber.com/leadershipfoxcities> .

Leadership Fox Cities is made possible through the generous support of presenting sponsor Bergstrom Automotive.

To get involved with the Leadership Fox Cities Steering Committee, the Leadership Fox Cities Alumni Association, or for any questions regarding the program, contact Amy Schanke, Director of Leadership Fox Cities, at (920) 422-0041 or aschanke@foxcitieschamber.com.
