

PRESS RELEASE
For immediate release

Shawano Pathways will hold their Annual Social and Report to the Community Tuesday, November 15, at the American Legion Hall in Shawano

SHAWANO -- A program on Buggies, Bikes and Covered Bridges: The Conflicts, Challenges and Communities that shaped the Mountain Bay Trail will be featured.

Guest speakers include Amish Elder Johnny Yoder, who was involved in the original development of the Mountain Bay Trail, and Steve Charlier, Shawano County Park Ranger at the time.

Pathway's annual student photography contest entries will be on display and winners will be announced.

The event begins at 5 pm with a social hour, silent auction and 50/50 raffles followed by the program and traditional Amish Haystack Dinner with pie at 6pm. Tickets are $22 (members) and $25 (non-members). Cash bar available.

A recap of 2022 accomplishments and plans for the upcoming year will be announced.

Shawano Pathways is a non-profit organization focused on

- promoting the importance of greenways and trails to the quality of life within the community.
- planning for and facilitating the development, implementation, and improvement of trails networks within Shawano County for recreation and alternative transportation.
- sponsoring and providing various opportunities for healthy outdoor activities for all ages.

For more information and to make a reservation, check out the Shawano Pathways Facebook page or <http://www.shawanopathways.org>

###

For more information, contact: Dana DeWinter, Shawano Pathways Membership Chair danadewinter@gmail.com; 608 886-3024

If you could fit a graphic of some type, I've attached a log, an invitation, and a photo (perhaps caption "What's our next project? Find out on Nov. 15.").